INFINITE CELTIC

Eau de Toilette for Woman

Founder of the watchmaking and jewelry House which bears his name, Philippe Charriol has always shown from a young age a particular interest in the world of knowledge and culture. From his passion for history was born the famous twisted cable inspired by ancient Celtic art, which has become the symbol of Maison Charriol since its creation, thus highlighting its timeless style.

The new Infinite Celtic Eau de Toilette for Woman is deeply inspired by the elegance and refinement of Celtic art, which appears more modern than ever.

Infinite Celtic is true to the image of the Charriol woman, chic and contemporary, urban and cosmopolitan, who will blissfully give in to this bouquet subtly distilling its floral fragrance and fruity character.

The beautiful flacon with its elegant design, marries brilliantly the refinement of the traditional Celtic twisted cable to the soft femininity of Charriol watch dial.

Infinite Celtic Eau de Toilette, the new concentrate of feminine infinite seduction.

INFINITE CELTIC

FRAGRANCE

Olfactory family: Floral Fruity

Perfumer-creator: Mathilde Bijaoui - Mane

« I created a floral and fruity fragrance as a Charriol jewel, for an elegant, strong and vibrant woman.

At first, there is a contrasted facet, both crunchy and creamy, brought by Pink Pepper Pure Jungle Essence™, Pear, Raspberry and Praline.

Then, a heart of delightfully fresh Violet allied to the sensuality of Turkish Rose and Sambac Jasmine highlight the modernity and the feminine sophistication of the fragrance.

And finally, delicious notes of Vanilla, Cocoa and Patchouli, associated with fruity facets evoke a delicious red fruit coulis for an addictive trail. »

Mathilde Bijaoui

A contemporary fragrance with resolutely feminine and refined notes, adorned with a luminous and asserted sensuality.

INFINITE CELTIC

FLACON AND PACKAGING

Ultrafeminine and refined, the new flacon is inspired by Maison Charriol's watch collections for women, all adorned with the Charriol cable for a touch of timeless refinement.

A watch dial gold decor complements the modernity of the new luminous cylindrical glass bottle and enhances the beautiful nude tones of the fragrance.

The jewel-like lid composed of the twisted Charriol cable in shiny gold gives a rich and sophisticated style to the whole.

The bright white case is adorned with the famous twisted cable embossed tone-on-tone, featuring the Charriol logo and a round gold-embossed ladies' watch face.

A modern flacon of great elegance and with a real personality, like a beautiful object that we want to have at home...
