THOMAS SABO is getting in the mood for spring/summer with the Tropical series

Lauf a. d. Pegnitz, January 2018 – vivid jewellery colours, elaborately designed precious pieces and cultural diversity – for spring/summer, THOMAS SABO is focusing on the iconic design language of the Sterling Silver Collection with an unprecedented intensity of colour and an expressive look. The style statements of the tropical-mythical motifs from the new Tropical series are especially eye-catching.

Filigree, handcrafted statement pendants enchant as a highlight. The parrot and the sunstone amulet sparkle with their vibrant colours, Aztec-inspired patterns and filigree decoration. In addition, long necklaces with swinging feathers as well as rings, earrings and bracelets impress in individual jewellery creations. The THOMAS SABO Snake fascinates for the first time as a ring, pendant, bangle or single earring in a green and turquoise look.

“Our Tropical series interprets the contrast between the dark green of the jungle, the colours of the animals and plants and sparkling light reflections in masterfully crafted jewellery creations”, says Susanne Kölbl, Creative Director at THOMAS SABO.
