The richness of SAFRAN rests quietly inside the timid, purple Crocus Flower. A flower that blooms for a few short days. It's rich red and fragrant stamen are hidden inside, three per flower. Carefully harvested by hand, they are sun-dried to concentrate their precious, unusual, silken aroma. The richness of this luxurious note is enchanted and sustained. Finally crowned with an Indian Oud, creating a RARE, VERY RARE SAFRAN PERFUME.

Oud du Jour

Nobel trees seem to have a spirit and a soul, an energy drawn from the Earth that radiates, comforts and protects. OUD develops within the heartwood of these trees. A process that can be compared to an Oyster making a pearl. It happens rarely, very rarely. Which is why OUD is more costly than gold. Its perfume is uniquely rich, deep, strong and intense. It must be used carefully, and by very skilled perfumers to be kept from overpowering the fragrance notes it is blended with. OUD DU JOUR is a Masters creation, where its many ingredients are seamlessly integrated with the rich OUD into a magnificent, soft and sunny perfume. It remains a beautiful and discreet companion all day long, without either overwhelming nor disappearing.

Midnight Rose

Midnight Rose begins as a fragrance of gentle early morning roses sprinkled with fresh morning dew. Top notes of Lychee and Pomelo surround. The mid notes of lily and pure Red Rose jewel tones then begin to add a calming sensuality, as this complex perfume takes on the ripe and rich texture of a rare and glorious antique tapestry. Threads of warm dark-hued Oud anchor the composition with a veil that gracefully moves it towards the sumptuous effect added by final notes of Labdanum and Amber. Thus these early roses transform into a glorious night garden named MIDNIGHT ROSE. A magnificent scent that lingers long after midnight..

Oud Tabac

BY PERFUMER ILIAS ERMENIDIS

In creating OUD TABAC I had in mind something deliciously intoxicating, sensuous, unforgettable and addictive. I wanted to start somewhat spicy and bracing - like the fragrant notes of Coriander and Ginger, then join them with Saffron's bright leather-and-honey quality and the airy soft-and-sweet Heliotrope.

At its heart, OUD TABAC wafts over an accord of Oud, Olibanum and Amberwood-like an intoxicating hug - delicious and forever memorable.

Then an oriental quality takes over... Soft, warm and intimate. It wraps you in toasted-caramel notes of Vanilla Bourbon, balsamic and ambery Cistus and smoldering Alaskan Cedar and Guaiac Woods.

Finally, I blended the entire composition with Captive Musks. This move is enticing and irresistible and should give each wearer a sense of personal attraction and magnetism. This is my OUD TABAC: Soft. Sensual. Addictive!
